

ENVISIONING 2020

A SERIES OF COMMUNITY DISCUSSIONS ON Land Use Planning in Cochise County

Join the Cochise County Planning Department and neighbors in your community for a thought-provoking series of exercises and presentations that will explore how the county and its citizens can work together to address community land use change. During the exercises neighbors will:

- Identify important community assets worth preserving or enhancing
- Talk about their hopes for the community as it changes
- Identify preferred types of growth
- Community Discussions will be facilitated

Refreshments will be provided.
