

Lieutenant Curtis Wilkins

Curtis Wilkins has served the citizenry of Cochise County since 1998. His career as a public servant was launched by Sheriff Larry Dever who selected Curtis as a Detention Officer serving in the central jail in Bisbee, Az. Utilizing the position of Detention Officer as a starting platform, Curtis ventured to the sworn side of law enforcement becoming a Deputy Sheriff one year later. Curtis has served as a Patrol Officer, general crimes detective, narcotics detective, S.W.A.T. Operator, S.W.A.T. Team Leader, Hostage Negotiator, K-9 Handler, and Patrol Sergeant. In 2013, Sheriff Mark Dannels promoted Curtis to Patrol Lieutenant over the Sierra Vista district and he currently serves as the Administrative Lieutenant overseeing the divisions/duties of dispatch, community operations, civil process, evidence, training coordinator, animal control officers, Search and Rescue, and deputy testing and selection processes.
