

Sean Gijanto was born and raised in upstate New York. He attended the Rochester Institute of Technology and graduated with a bachelor's degree in Business Management. He moved to Arizona in 1997 and started with the Sheriff's Office in 1998. During his career, Sean was assigned as a deputy in Elfrida and Douglas and then promoted to patrol sergeant in the Douglas district. Later, he was assigned to the Major Crimes unit as the sergeant until he was promoted to Lieutenant. He is a firearms instructor and active been a member of the SWAT team. Sean is currently assigned to the Special Operations Division.