

Lieutenant Ariel Monge

Ariel Monge was born in Los Angeles, California in 1980. He graduated from Douglas High School in May of 2000 and began his employment with the Cochise County Sheriff's Office in June of 2000 assigned to the work in the adult detention center. In 2003, he enrolled in Cochise College in Douglas, AZ where he attended for three years, majoring in Administration of Justice.

In 2006, he promoted to Sergeant and shortly thereafter he promoted to Lieutenant in 2007 and was assigned to oversee the day to day operation of the Detention Division under the direction of the Jail Commander. Since 2008, he has been active with the Arizona Jails Association, serving on several committees helping coordinate annual state conferences for the association.

In 2013, the Arizona Jails Association awarded Ariel with a scholarship to attend the National Jail Leadership Command Academy (NJLCA). He attended the NJLCA in Huntsville, Texas where he graduated from their fifteenth class.