- a. Unless waived by the appointing authority or designee, employees shall submit written requests for use of personal leave for an anticipated absence at least two weeks in advance of the dates of leave. The appointing authority shall respond to written requests for leave within five business days.
 - b. The employee shall notify the appointing authority or designee of an unanticipated absence as soon as possible or not less than 30 minutes prior to scheduled work start time to be eligible to use personal leave.
2. accurately reports all approved personal leave on the employee's time sheet.
- C. Except for the use of Personal Leave for a qualifying condition under the FMLA, the appointing authority, or designee:
1. has the sole authority to approve or disapprove Personal Leave requested by an employee. Disapproval of leave must be made in writing and be for a valid business purpose.
 2. may require that an employee postpone or change scheduled personal leave for a valid business purpose.
 3. shall ensure an employee's use of leave is properly recorded on the employee's timesheet
- D. Personal Leave shall not be charged against an employee's accrued leave balance for an observed holiday that occurs while an employee is using Personal Leave.
- E. Personal Leave accrued during a paid leave of absence may not be used until the employee has returned to work from the absence and has worked at least one (1) full day.
- F. Deductions of Personal Leave for authorized absences from work are taken based on the employee's regularly scheduled work hours.
- G. Personal Leave may be used to supplement Workers' Compensation payments up to 100% of an employee's regular bi-weekly base salary.
- H. To facilitate a healthy work/life balance and ensure employees are at work in a refreshed and productive state, all employees should take at least two, one-week periods of Personal Leave per year, or the equivalent of 80 hours.
